Letter or Email Response:

I am writing in to voice my opposition regarding the building on our green spaces in Debden. I have lived in the area for many years and like the majority of residents enjoy our green spaces. Children and grandchildren need them, to play, and learn. These projects will be a blot on the landscape. Debden is already becoming overcrowded. People residing close to these green spaces will be forced to look out onto concrete masses and possibly affect house prices. This is totally unfair to existing residents and ...Redacted.....
