Letter or Email Response:

Please reconsider plans to build on Jessel Green and other open spaces within the Debden Estate. These relatively small open spaces are valued by the existing residents and would be lost to both those who already use them and new occupants of the transformed environment. Space for six hundred units has been proposed at Woolston Manor at first sight this would offer an ideal location for the type of accommodation required and would better accommodate the vehicular traffic that such increased settlement generates. This location is close to the M11 and Debden Central Line Underground station; convenient. ...REDACTED...
