Dear Sir/Madam,

Land at North Weald Bassett, South of Vicarage Lane

I find it ludicrous that the site is in the local plan when the developer is yet to release any detailed plans for the site. How are we supposed to fully understand the development or consider this site suitable/unsuitable for development of this many houses when we are yet to see any detailed plans?

I know it may not be a necessity but other developments have more detailed plans, and the people behind them have engaged more with the local residents and still haven't been put in the local plan.

Yours sincerely,
