Letter or Email Response:

I have just read your proposal for the next wave of development in the Loughton area after leading the horrifying statistic that one in three children are now obese!! Yet you still persist in taking more open spaces to build more houses which will be unaffordable to local people and only ...Redacted.... You are also proposing to use the scarce parking resources in an area which already suffers from insufficient parking spaces, forcing more traffic to use our roads which are already in a disgusting and dangerous state of repair. We also have insufficient infrastructure, i.e. schools, doctors etc., to cope with an ever increasing population. I do not suppose more or anybody's objection will be considering in your deliberations about the future of Loughton but as someone in their 7th decade, I am glad I will not be here to see this whole area turned into a concrete jungle with too many people and too few resources.
