Letter or Email Response:

after living in east london for most of our life we decided to come to loughton to get away from the over crowding and tower blocks and live where there was a nice green open spaces. we now learn that this area is going to become what we moved away from, it is crowded enough already. you cant get doctors appointment for three weeks. the schools are over crowded and where are the people that are going to live there going to park their cars? you cant walk on the kerb for parked cars everyone you speak to has the same opinion
