Some of the sites suggested , such as the Community Centre Saxon Way are on going businesses , employing people and used by over 500 members of the community every week. A Day Centre for the elderly and a preschool are based there. What will happen to the community you build when there's no centre or facilities for young and old. What happens to the businesses that use the centre? The site suggested near the Wheatsheaf on the Crooked Mile is too big, traffic on the crooked Mile is heavy already and it is one of the
