Letter or Email Response:

1. Loughton has a distinctive character which is being eroded. 2. Loughton's Centre, it's recreational and cultural heart (set on the hillside above the High Rd, containing the Library, Leisure Centre, Cricket Pitch, Bowling Green, Playground and Catholic Church) has an open aspect, with lovely views across the valley towards the Forest and Conservation Area. "Views into and out of sites should be carefully considered from the start of the design process. NO housing should be built here. 3. Debden/Loughton's green spaces are vital for the community and must be preserved. They should not be built on. Why do they not enjoy the same protection as Village Greens? 4. The Council cannot improve infrastructure. It is not within their power. ...redacted...
