RE: proposed new housing on jessel green an adjacent green sites my wife and i have lived in jessel drive almost Redacted and are in our nineties, we amazed that a group of people elected by the local residents can treat those people with such little thought and consideration, if you have your way this beautiful area will become part of the great sprawl of london and lose all its charm and beauty which we so value, you councillors have already vandalised your Broadway on the corner of rector lane with that monstrosity, is there no end to the vandalising of our lovely area, Redacted think very seriously about our future especially the young folk. green space is already hard to come by as it is, therefore i ask you to give utmost consideration, other large open spaces such as, vally hill, loughton/debden lane, north weald airfield and dare i say it theydon bois green stand by your fellow citizens old and young don't betray us.
