Letter or Email Response:

Dear Sirs, I would like to raise my objection to the proposed development in the Loughton area. My objection is that the town already has a high population for the roads and services. The roads are already very busy with traffic jams a daily occurrence. The central line is running over capacity with overcrowding sometimes reaching dangerous levels. Access to medical facilities are also oversubscribed. Recently there was an alert at Princess Alexandra as there were no beds available. Trying to get a doctor's appointment is similarly difficult. I believe that instead of overdevelopment of Loughton a plan for a new town or an out of area development on Brownfield sites would be more appropriate. We should preserve what little green/open spaces we have left in loughton which gives it it's wonderful character.
