Letter or Email Response:

I was so surprised that the local plan did not include building in Abridge, I went on-line and found there is 30 acres of farm land for sale, all it needs is planning permission and as this would be down to E.F.D.C, then there should be no problem there and on 30 acres you could build quite a lot of houses. I have lived in Loughton since 1948 and have seen what was a lovely village turned into a messy town with buildings of all shapes and sizes. The green spaces that have been put forward for this local plan must NOT go ahead; we need to live with grass and trees around, not bricks and mortar. Loughton is being over developed, roads can't cope, cars are parked everywhere, roads are overcrowded and in bad condition. Schools, doctors and dentists can't cope with the amount of people wanting their services, so why impose more problems by increasing the population in Loughton? You need to look at Abridge or another likewise site that could contain a new town with all of the amenities that the people living there would need. I am totally against any building in or around Loughton/ Debden, leave us alone to enjoy our green spaces. I suggest you take the local plan and shred it and start again
