Letter or Email Response:

I am writing to lodge my objection to the proposed building of 200 extra homes on the land at Limes Farm. To date you have provided us with no information as to how you would increase the amenities for the local area. No new schools are being proposed, there is already overcrowding at Grange Hill Station and problems with local parking. At this present time you are unable to fulfil your waste collections duties and so I am intrigued to understand how you propose to be able to deal with simple things like rubbish, parking, schooling if you go ahead the build on this land...Redacted...
